

TEACHERS' WORKSHOP

in your schools
at a mutually agreed upon date and time

The need for arts to partner education is more urgent than ever before. In this time of rapid change and technological advancement, the pace at which the old is challenged by the new is relentless. It demands that we constantly redefine our understanding of the world and our place in it. That we find new ways to empathise, to communicate, to connect a cross generations.

Junoon offers arts-based workshops for teachers from all disciplines. These workshops, drawing upon theatre and related arts, create a conducive environment to reflect, to explore, to examine, freed from the dear of failure. They encourage perspective ad understanding. They offer space to engage refresh and reinvigorate you. We look forward to contributing to joyful learning.

Participants : Minimum 20 | Maximum 40

Duration : 2 days | 6 hrs per day

